1. Air du Rat

Abi Abirounère
Qui Que tu n'étais don?
Une blanche monère
Un jo
Un joli goulifon
Un oeil
Un oeil à son pépère
Un jo
Un joli goulifon.

The Rat's Air

Abi Abirounère
Who then that you were not?
A white monère
A pre
A pretty goulifon
An eye
An eye to his papa
A pre
A pretty goulifon.

2. Spleen

Dans un vieux square où l'océan
Du mauvais temps met son séant
Sur un banc triste aux yeux de pluie
C'est d'une blonde
Rosse et Gironde
Que tu t'ennuies
Dans ce cabaret de Néant
Qu'est notre vie.

Melancolia

In an old square where the ocean
Of the bad weather puts its behind
On a sad bench with eyes of rain
It is for a blonde
And buxom nag
That you pine
In this cabaret of Nothingness
Which is our life.

3. La Grenouille américaine

La gouénouille améouicaine¹
Me regarde par-dessus
Ses bésicles de futaine.
Ses yeux sont des grogs massus
Dépourvus de jolitaine.

Je pense à Casadesus
Qui n'a pas fait de musique
Sur cette scène d'amour
Don't le parfum nostalgique
Sort d'une boîte d'Armour.

Argus de table, tu gardes
L'âme du crapaud Vanglor
O bouillon que me regardes
Avec tes lunettes d'or.

1. The American Frog

The Amewican fwog
Looks at me over
Its fustian spectacles.
Its eyes are bulging grogs
Devoid of prettiness.

I am reminded of Casadesus
Who has not made music
On this stage of love
Whose nostalgic perfume
Comes from one of Armour's boxes.

Table Argus, you keep
The spirit of the toad Vanglor,
O froth who look at me
Through your golden glasses.

2. A mispronunciation, mocking an American accent in which the French “r” sounds like a “w”; in English an “Amewican fwog”.

4. Air du Poète

Au pays de Papouasie
J'ai caressé la Pouasie...¹
La grâce que je vous souhaite
C'est de n'être pas Papouète.

Poet's Air

In the country of Papua
I caressed the Papuane...
The fortune that I wish you
Is not to be Papuan.

1. A play on the words "poésie" and "poète".

5. Chanson du Chat¹

Il est une bebête
Ti Li petit n'enfant
Tirelan
C'est une byronette
La beste à sa moman
Tirelan
Le peu Ti nan faon
C'est un ti blan-blanc
Un petit potasson?
C'est mon goret,
C'est mon pourçon
Mon petit potasson.

Il saut' sur la fenêtre
Et groume du museau
Pasqu'il voit sur la crête
S'découper les oiseaux
Tirelo
Le petit n'en faut
C'est un ti blo-blo
Un petit Potaçao
C'est mon goret,
C'est mon pourceau
Mon petit potasseau.

1. A piece of nonsense which plays on the types of mistakes made by a child learning to talk: "enfant" has picked up an extra "n" as a result of the contraction of "un enfant" made in common speech to "n'enfant". Later, the same words "Le petit n'enfant" are incorrectly split into "Le peu Ti non faon."

5. Song of the Cat

He is just a little beastly
Ti Li an little child
Tirelan
It's a byronette
The beast of his mommy.
Tirelan
The li tul shild
It's an 'ittle blan-blanc
A little potasson?
It's my piglet,
My little potasson

He jumps onto the window
And rummages with his mussle
Not that he sees in the tops
The shapes of the birds.
Tirelo
The little has need
It is an 'ittle blo-blo
A little Potaçao
Its my piglet,
Its my pourceau
My little potasseau

TACET

The image shows a musical score for a Horn in F. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a time signature of 2/4. Above the staff, a tempo marking indicates a quarter note equals 60 beats per minute. The staff itself is a single line with a thick black bar across it, indicating a TACET (silence) instruction. The word "TACET" is written in bold capital letters above the staff. The staff ends with a double bar line.
